WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

BFM Health and Living Live 2017 is rooted in the brain, a fascinating organ that is amazingly adaptable. Conversations will be centred around the challenges we face in maintaining a healthy brain, because by 2020, the mind is expected to be the second highest source of health problems affecting Malaysians, after heart disease.

Our wellbeing ought to inform urban planning and health policies.

Join us in discussions with experts on building resilience for the wellbeing of our minds.

Why attend?

- ◆ Discover how your brain is affected by urban living
- ◆ Engage with healthcare professionals, urban planners and policymakers on how to improve your quality of life in the city
- ◆ Gain insights into the future of brain health

Who should attend?

- ◆ Urban dwellers
- ◆ Young professionals
- ◆ Caregivers for the elderly
- ◆ Anyone passionate about the brain!

SESSION 1

Is the Pursuit of Happiness Making us Anxious?

Countries are introducing Happiness Indices. However, it seems that the more happiness becomes a stated goal, the more elusive it becomes. Mental health should also be central to the urban planning process and promoted as good practice. What does this modern quest for happiness entail?

Guests:

Hamdan Abdul Majeed Executive Director, Think City

YB Rajiv Rishyakaran ADUN Bukit Gasing, Selangor State Legislative Assembly

Dr Abdul Kadir Abu Bakar Consultant Psychiatrist, Malaysian Psychiatric Association

Moderator: Ezra Zaid

SESSION 2

Healthy Minds in the City

By 2020, mental illness is expected to become the second biggest health concern affecting Malaysians, after heart disease. People who live in larger settlements seem more likely to become mentally ill - are our brains equipped for living in urban environments? We discuss common psychological issues that affect people living in cities.

Guests:

Prof Dr Philip George Consultant Psychiatrist, The Mind Faculty

Dr Toh Chin Lee Head of Psychiatry Services, Ministry of Health

Moderator: Sharaad Kuttan

SESSION 3

In Search of a Cure for Dementia, Alzheimer's and Parkinson's

The Holy Grail of research in studies for Dementia, Alzheimer's and Parkinson's, is a treatment that slows, halts or reverses premature cell death in a particular part of the brain. It is this progressive degeneration that causes the symptoms we see. While there remains no cure, it's essential that people have access to the right support and services to help them live with these conditions.

Guests:

Assoc Prof Dr Tan Maw Pin Consultant Geriatrician, Universiti Malaya

Prof Dr Lim Shen-Yang Consultant Neurologist, Universiti Malaya

Dr Bharathi Vengadasalam Consultant Psychiatrist & Geriatric Psychiatrist, Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur

Dr Azlina Ahmad Annuar Neurogeneticist, Universiti Malaya

Moderator: Richard Bradbury

SESSION 4

The Age of the Sex Drought

If you and your partner are not having sex, does that mean your relationship is dead? Apparently, there is a new kind of sex drought, the one brought about by modern life. The good news is, there's a way to fix it. We discuss the role of the brain in intimacy.

Guests:

Dr George Lee Consultant Urologist, Gleneagles Kuala Lumpur

Dr Martha Lee Clinical Sexologist, Eros Coaching

Paul J Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Monash University Malaysia & Paul J Psychology Consultancy

Moderator: Meera Sivasothy

Dr Tan Maw Pin is currently an Associate Professor in Geriatric Medicine at Universiti Malaya. She qualified from the University of Nottingham, United Kingdom and worked as a house officer in Derby and a senior house officer at Nottingham City Hospital before moving up north to Newcastle upon Tyne to pursue her higher specialist training in geriatric medicine. She worked briefly as a Consultant Geriatrician at the Royal Victoria Infirmary and Freeman Hospital before returning home to Malaysia. Dr Tan is also a keen researcher, and since her return to Malaysia four years ago, is the Principal Investigator (PI) of a randomised controlled study in falls, the lead PI of the UM Grand Challenge - Promoting Independence in Our Seniors with Arthritis and a co-PI in the Malaysian Elders Longitudinal Research study. Dr Tan is also the co-founder of the Ageing and Age-Associated Disorders Research group.

Dr Philip George
The Mind Faculty

Dr Philip George is a Consultant Psychiatrist and Addiction Specialist. He is presently a Professor at the Clinical School of the International Medical University and an Honorary Consultant Psychiatrist at Hospital Seremban. He is also a Visiting Consultant Psychiatrist at Assunta Hospital, Medical Director of The Mind Faculty in Kuala Lumpur, and President of the Malaysian Healthy Ageing Society.

Dr Abdul Kadir Abu Bakar
Malaysian Psychiatric Association

Dr Abdul Kadir Abu Bakar has been a psychiatrist since 1991. He graduated as a psychiatrist from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia and has worked in England with a sub-specialisation in community and rehabilitation. He has worked in several government hospitals and is now practicing in Johor Bahru. He has published extensively and his current interests include work for the disabled, family support groups, peer support services and quality rights.

Dr Martha Lee
Eros Coaching

Dr Martha Tara Lee is a Clinical Sexologist at Eros Coaching in Singapore. Holding a Doctorate in Human Sexuality, she provides sexuality and relationship coaching and conducts sexual education events. She is the author of "Love, Sex and Everything In-Between" and "Orgasmic Yoga," as well as the host of the weekly radio show Eros Evolution on OMTimes Radio.

MEET THE EXPERTS

Hamdan Abdul Majeed
Think City

Hamdan Abdul Majeed is a Director at Khazanah Nasional Berhad (KNB), the investment arm of the Malaysian government. He leads KNB's regional office in the northern region of Malaysia with the mandate to seek out strategic investment opportunities to catalyse growth and development in that region. He also serves as Executive Director of Think City, an urban regeneration outfit providing urban policy thinking, implementing and managing urban solutions in Malaysia.

Dr Azlina Ahmad Annuar
Universiti Malaya

Dr Azlina Ahmad Annuar (BSc Neuroscience - University College London; PhD Neurogenetics - Imperial College London) is a senior lecturer at the Faculty of Medicine, Universiti Malaya Medical Centre. Her research interests are on the neurosciences and the genetics of neurodegenerative diseases. She runs a number of community-based activities like the annual Brain Awareness Week and the Jeans for Genes Malaysia campaign.

Dr George Lee
Gleneagles Kuala Lumpur

Dr George Lee is currently an Associate Professor of Surgery at Monash University Malaysia and Consultant Urological Surgeon at Gleneagles Kuala Lumpur. He is well known for his dynamic personality and charisma in his weekly radio appearances on BFM89.9, his TV appearances on RTM and NTV7, as well as through his writings for several magazines. His regular column in The Star Online addresses men's health issues with humour, and his articles in China Press have been compiled into national bestsellers.

Dr Lim Shen-Yang
Universiti Malaya

Dr Lim Shen-Yang is a Consultant Neurologist and Professor at Universiti Malaya. He is an internationally-renowned clinician, researcher and teacher in the field of Parkinson's disease and related movement disorders. He is Chair of the Malaysian Movement Disorders Council and Chair of the Education Committee, International Parkinson's Movement Disorder Society (MDS), Asian-Oceanian section.

MEET THE EXPERTS

Dr Toh Chin Lee
Ministry of Health

Dr Toh Chin Lee is a Senior Consultant Psychiatrist and Head of Department of Psychiatry and Mental Health at Selayang Hospital. He is also the Head of Psychiatry Services at the Ministry of Health Malaysia. He is the President of the Asian Society of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Allied Professions and the Malaysian Association of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. He was also an investigator in the MH 370 ICAO Annex 13 Safety Investigation Committee, contributing his expertise in human psychology and behaviour.

YB Rajiv Rishyakaran
Selangor State Legislative Assembly

YB Rajiv Rishyakaran is a first-term member of the Selangor State Assembly from the Democratic Action Party, representing the state seat of Bukit Gasing (N.34). Prior to this, he served three terms as a Councillor at Majlis Perbandaran Subang Jaya. Rajiv's areas of interest are town planning, affordable housing and improving public transportation. Along with other state assemblypersons, he consistently called for a holistic "traffic masterplan" and believes that funds allocated for transportation will be better spent on extending the reach and connectivity of public transportation rather than building more highways.

Dr Bharathi Vengadasalam
Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur

Dr Bharathi is a Consultant Psychiatrist and Geriatric Psychiatrist at Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur. She is passionate about mental health education to the public and physicians, especially pertaining to geriatric mental health, medical liaison work and women's mental health. She is a member of the Malaysian Healthy Ageing Society and International Psychogeriatric Association. She has also been a speaker at many medical conferences and workshops, discussing post-stroke depression, Alzheimer's disease, post-traumatic stress and oncology-related psychosocial issues.

Paul J
Monash University Malaysia

A pioneer of applied psychology in Malaysia, Paul J deals with psychological issues across the human lifespan. With professional experience in Britain and Australia, Paul is a proponent of emotional intelligence, positive psychology and effective living with stress. An accomplished scuba dive master, he is passionate about ecopsychology.
